Octavio Serrano Soliz

Kokomo High School Class of 2019 graduate Octavio Serrano Soliz, an International student from Bolivia, plans to attend a university in the United States to study Industrial Engineering. Octavio, the son of Ricardo Serrano and Catherine Soliz, and the host son of Robyn and Josh Whaley, hopes to become a business owner in Bolivia. The Varsity Wildkat soccer player took advantage of the Kokomo High School Advanced College Preparatory program by completing several Advanced Placement classes, as well as the Project Lead the Way Engineering courses at the Kokomo Area Career Center. The KHS Varsity Track hurdler noted: "Kokomo High School gives students the best education you could ask for." The youngest player on the Bolivian Rugby National Team thanked Kokomo High School for "offering many athletic opportunities, as well as amazing coaches, who helped me be a better athlete and a better person." The North Central Conference All-Academic Team selection thanked his parents, host family, Kokomo friends, teachers, and "every person involved with the KHS International program for making this the best experience of my life."
