Connor's Success Story

Kokomo High School Class of 2017 graduate Connor Sanburn plans to attend Ball State University to earn a degree in Telecommunications (Focus in Digital Video Production), with a minor in Urban Planning. Connor, the son of Dick and Crystal Sanburn, will graduate as an International Baccalaureate (IB) Diploma candidate, noting that the IB program prepared him for life beyond high school. "I know I'm going to face adversity and challenges in college; and in life, but I feel the IB program has prepared me to overcome those challenges by teaching me to become a better student and a better member of society." The Creating Entrepreneurial Opportunities (CEO) student developed his own video production business, CCS Entertainment, while also founding the KHS Film Club and Film Festival and serving as Anchor, Editor, Writer, and Technical Director of KATV – a student-produced video news program. The three-year Varsity Letterman in tennis thanked Coach Sean Flannery for "helping to shape me physically, mentally, and spiritually," while citing his English Teacher, the late Melanie Peoples, for "teaching me to love reading, and to find peace through the obstacles of school, work, and life." Connor thanked KHS for providing an "incredible" high school experience.
