Demitra's Success Story

Kokomo High School Class of 2017 graduate Demitra Novinger plans to attend the Ball State University Honors College to study Early Childhood Education and Elementary Education, with endorsements in Spanish and English as foreign languages. Demitra, the daughter of Dawn Myers and Roy Novinger, hopes to become certified as an International Baccalaureate teacher, and would love to work at a bilingual school where she can teach all subjects in English and Spanish. The International Baccalaureate Diploma Candidate and Advanced Placement (AP) Scholar believes "the ability to take part in both IB and AP courses, while interacting competitively and socially with students from all over the world, has provided me with a well-rounded and immersive experience similar to the real world." Demitra accepted the Honors College Residency Scholarship, the Ball State Presidential Scholarship, and the Hoosier Educators Scholarship. The KHS Peer Tutor thanked her AP Spanish Literature teacher Elena Miranda for "inspiring me daily to make a difference in the lives of others" and her young niece and nephew for helping her to realize her passion and love for teaching young children.
