Noah's Success Story

Kokomo High School Class of 2017 graduate Noah Burket received acceptance letters from IU, Butler, IUPUI, Hanover, Manchester, Ball State, Franklin, Goshen, and the University of Indianapolis before deciding to attend Purdue University to study biochemistry. Noah, the son of Rex Burket and Rhonda Summers, plans to attend medical school to become a cardiothoracic surgeon. The Advanced Placement (AP) Scholar has taken 12 AP classes while at Kokomo High School, including every AP science class offered, and feels that he is "well-prepared for college due to the rigors of my AP classes." The Boys' Legion Secretary thanked English teacher Ms. Jenifer Scott "for teaching me I am capable of accomplishing more than I believe," and his parents for "instilling hard work, leadership, and compassion in me." The Environmental Club leader looks back fondly his Kokomo High School opportunities. "The diversity at Kokomo has allowed me to interact with such a cross section of people. I feel like I have truly grown as a person. From attending my first dance to taking my last AP test, there is no school I would have rather attended than my second home... Kokomo High School!"
