Trevor's Success Story

Kokomo High School Class of 2017 graduate Trevor Emerick plans to begin his collegiate career at Indiana University Kokomo to study accounting and finance, with the goal of transferring to Ball State University as a sophomore, and adding a second major in Radio and Television. Trevor, the son of Andrea and Brad Emerick, will use his love and understanding of mathematics to assist the people of Kokomo as a financial advisor. The Varsity Tennis Captain noted that because Kokomo is the largest high school in the area, KHS is able to offer a wide variety of rigorous courses that "allowed me to continually challenge myself while I improved throughout high school." The Creating Entrepreneurial Opportunities (CEO) student thanked his parents for "doing a fantastic job of always pushing me to strive for more in life," and KHS Athletic Director Jason Snyder "for the countless hours devoted to ensuring that every student-athlete's experience is the best it can possibly be at Kokomo." The Hoosier Boys State delegate added that being a student at KHS is like being part of a large family since "everyone cares so much about each other and wants nothing but the best for one another."
