Raymond's Success Story

Kokomo High School Class of 2017 graduate Yuankun "Raymond" Zhao, an International student from China, plans to attend either Northeastern University or Wake Forest University to study finance. Yuankun, the son of Honggang Zhao and Xueli Tian, hopes to enter business school or law school before becoming a stockbroker, consultant, or a finance attorney. The National Debate qualifier completed 9 Advanced Placement (AP) courses within the College Prep Academy during his two years at Kokomo High School, noting that these AP courses successfully prepared him for the academic challenges he will face in college. The Senior Class Secretary cited Kokomo High School administrators and teachers for "helping me transition from the Chinese education system to a United States college, and for providing me with a great cultural experience." The KHS football player thanked Coach Brett Colby, who was "like a father to me... treating me like family while I was away from my own family," and AP Literature Teacher Jenifer Scott for "helping me improve my linguistic skills and my ability to think critically."

Kokomo!

With 24 Advanced Placement (AP) courses, an International Baccalaureate (IB) authorized program, dual credit classes, and Project Lead the Way engineering courses in our College Prep Academy, along with a K-Tech Academy, a STEM Academy, and an award-winning Arts program that now includes Orchestra; Kokomo High School is definitely on the move. KHS builds on our traditions while we prepare our graduates to embrace success in the future. We continue the expansion of excellent academic programs, courses, international partnerships and exchanges, updated facilities, and SO much more!
